From SPORTIME's CEO Claude Okin

I am sure that many of you have taken tropical vacations that you dreamed would include great tennis, only to find courts baking in the sun and in desperate need of maintenance, or badly damaged by weather, with pros that didn't come close to the standard you are accustomed to at SPORTIME, or with no pros available at all. I want to share a special opportunity with all of you – one that may provide the island tennis vacation of a lifetime. Since 1989, I have never approved SPORTIME promoting any tennis travel destination, because none of the opportunities seemed special enough to present to our members, but Zenaida Beach and Tennis Estate in Anguilla is unique. Longtime SPORTIME members own and operate Zenaida, one of the few villas on Anguilla with a private tennis court. In fact, this very special property boasts the only private Har-Tru "clay" tennis court in the Leeward Islands.

I hope that, in the coming months and years, many of you will enjoy this ultimate "secret" destination, and that Anguilla and Zenaida can both become a part of your lives. It is truly a special place to share with friends and loved ones, on and off the court.

Sincerely,

Claude Okin, CEO, SPORTIME Clubs

ABOUT ZENAIDA BEACH and TENNIS ESTATE

Zenaida Estate is nestled on three acres of lush tropical gardens where a 17th century Dutch fort once stood and offers direct access to a deserted white powdery-sand beach. Enjoy ultimate privacy in two separate villas and an adjoining garden cottage, all handsomely appointed, featuring a total of seven air conditioned bedrooms and en suite baths, a vanishing edge pool, and hot tub, a gym and more. The estate features a separate grand pavilion with double height ceilings, a gourmet kitchen and a wrap around terrace for dining, entertainment and large gatherings. Included in all rentals is a full staff with daily housekeeping and property maintenance. A world-class chef is also available.

The property has the only private Har-Tru soft tennis court in the Leeward Islands. Zenaida sits on Anguilla's highest elevation and is graced with a cooling breeze and is famous for its sweeping views of the Caribbean Sea, and the mountains of St. Maarten and St. Barths beyond.

The property can accommodate groups ranging from a single family, or two or three couples, housed in a single villa, to up to 14 guests, or seven couples, spread across the intimate but expansive estate. To view Zenaida's 2014/2015 rates, go to www.ZenaidaEstate.com.

ABOUT ANGUILLA

Nothing in the Caribbean can rival Anguilla's breathtaking turquoise seas, fantastic food and casual elegance. Anguilla is family-friendly, virtually crime free, low-key, never crowded, and an immediate antidote to the stress that New Yorkers live with 24/7. Plus it almost never rains in Anguilla. But, more than anything, what sets Anguilla apart is its 33 pristine beaches, featuring over twelve miles of stunning, white powder sand and tranquil waters ranging from aquamarine to cobalt blue - beaches of all kinds and all open to the public, though many virtually deserted.
